DETAILED ACTION

This Office Action is responsive to the applicant's amendment filed on Sept. 15, 2006.

Claims 1-5 and 10 have been canceled. Claims 11-16 have been added. Claims 6-9 have been withdrawn. Accordingly, claims 11-16 are pending in this application.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

1. Claims 12 and 14-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claims 12 and 14-16 recite the limitation "the gerotor set's in mesh position"; claim 16 recites the limitation "the space". There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

- (b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 11-12 and 15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Eckerle (Patent Number 6,074,189).

Regarding claims 11 and 12, Eckerle discloses an improved gerotor pump of the type having a gerotor set comprising: an inner rotor (2) having N outwardly extending lobes with N approximately circularly shaped grooves therebetween being in mesh with and, in response to rotational motion of a drive shaft (14), rotationally driving an eccentrically disposed outer rotor (3) about an eccentricity offset rotation axis located along a preferred eccentricity axis, the outer rotor being formed with $N + 1$ inwardly extending circularly shaped elements with $N + 1$ approximately circularly shaped grooves therebetween, whereby $N + 1$ pumping chambers (S, D) are formed between the outwardly extending lobes of the inner rotor, the inwardly extending circularly shaped elements of the outer rotor (3) and the grooves of either, a floating ring (4) having a bore (15) wherein the outer rotor is hydro-dynamically supported for rotation, and a housing having an internal gerotor pump cavity and first and second housing ports (see Fig. 1) located on opposite sides of the preferred eccentricity axis, wherein radial face slots are provided in at least one face of the outer rotor for fluidly coupling fluid with the $N+1$ approximately circularly shaped grooves of the outer rotor respectively with first and second fluid commutation ports formed on opposite sides of the floating ring (4) in a corresponding face or faces of the floating ring, further wherein the floating ring and the internal pump cavity have slidingly engaging floating ring and housing guide features for locating the floating ring (4) such that the center of the floating ring bore is laterally located along the preferred eccentricity axis and the floating ring is oriented in the roll direction such that the first mid second fluid commutation ports are symmetrically located on either side of the preferred eccentricity axis, and still further wherein the first and second housing ports are located and formed within the housing in such a manner that first and second housing ports respectively fluidly communicate with the first and second fluid commutation ports; means (16, 20) being provided for forcibly positioning the outer rotor (3) along the eccentricity axis against the inner rotor (2) at the gerotor set's in-mesh position.

The method claim 15 is inherent in the operation of the Eckerle device.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claim 13 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
4. Claims 14 and 16 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 11-16 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).
